“ Coach Guzman led us to the '85 District Championship. DR at that time had never beaten all those San Antonio schools; but, Coach Guzman believed in us. He would wake up at 5am pick us up at our individual homes by 5:30am we would run till 6:30-7am then we took showers at the gym and got ready for school, Coach I'm still running, running and winning in life, Thank You!

My sincere condolences to Tony's passing. A great man who was an inspiration to many. Last I saw him he was talking about God and I saw his spiritual side. A great man who I always respected and cared for his coaching me in boxing as well as him coaching several other people. He is with God now but we hold him always in our heart. Juan urby

“ My Condolences to the Guzman Family.
Coach will always be rememberd as our Role Model in School. His gentle smile, but stern discipline guided us to be who we are today.
RIP Coach, you will be dearly missed, but not forgotten.
