“ These last few days have been a blur for me. I feel like I’m stuck in a nightmare and can’t wake up. Saying goodbye to my beautiful mother has been the hardest thing I’ve ever had to do. She was such an inspiration and taught me so much. She was my companion when I would travel by myself by car. We spent hours talking about life. Who will accompany me now?

Mami, I love you more than words can explain. Thank you for being such an extraordinary mother, wife, friend, grandmother, daughter and person. I tried to be a good son. I hope you knew that. My world is shattered without you here. My mind knows you are no longer suffering and you are in a better place smiling down on us with Abuela, Mama Maria and Tío Joe. It’s just my heart cannot understand.
