“ *My granma was Cata and catita to alots!
She always welcomed us and anyone who will walk in to her home with love and affection. Always making food and for sure tortillas de harina was a must.
Always her home full of happiness and love!
That's what's stays in my heart and my memory!
She will always pinch me! She loved that!*

“ Dear Gonzalez Vasquez Familia:

Please accept our deepest condolences for the loss of Catita. As primas to Catita, we didn't visit often, but when we came into town to visit in Del Rio, we would make an effort to stop by and say hello. We enjoyed spending time together remembering the beautiful memories shared of our family members. Our dad, Manuel Nieto and your mom, Teresa Gonzalez were brother and sister.

We will keep the family in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Yolanda N. Valverde & Family
