

Chad Anthony LeGrange

November 9, 1969 - December 19, 2024

Chad “Charlie Mac” LeGrange was born November 9, 1969, and died on December 19, 2024. He passed away unexpectedly and is survived by wife Kellie Burkett LeGrange, son Chandler LeGrange and daughter Grace LeGrange. As well as four of his siblings, Clifford LeGrange III, Cindy LeGrange Jones, Carey LeGrange, Carlton LeGrange and his numerous nephews and nieces. He is preceded in death by his parents Clifford and Joy LeGrange and his other four siblings Curtis (Rucky) LeGrange, Candy LeGrange, Cherie LeGrange McCormick, and Clint LeGrange. Chad, as the baby of the large LeGrange family, was born twenty-one years after his oldest sibling and thus he enjoyed being the beloved and special son of all his siblings, nieces, and nephews. He was an authentic Louisiana man that grew up hunting, fishing, and alligator hunting in the swamps of South Louisiana. Later in life, he enjoyed spending cherished moments with his family hunting in Southwest Texas. As a devout Catholic he stood firm and confident in his beliefs and faith. He was a great father that exemplified unwavering generosity towards his children, always making sure that his children’s needs were placed above his own. In regard to his career, Chad remained a loyal employee at EJ USA for over thirty years as a Branch Manager. He valued his work, the relationships he built, and proudly called himself a part of the EJ family. Forever in our hearts, Chad’s memory will live on through the lives he touched with his kindness, generosity, and devotion. His legacy as a husband, father, brother, and friend will remain a bond that can never be broken. Rest in peace Chad, you will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.
