

Debora "Debbie" Fisher

January 18, 1963 - March 3, 2025

Debora "Debbie" Fisher, age 62, was reunited with her loved ones on Monday, March 3, 2025. She was born on January 18, 1963 in Illinois.

Preceding her in death was her mother, Sue West; brother, Lonny West; mother/father-in-law, Janette and James Odom; sisters-in-law: Gail Johnson and Isabel Odom; and brother-in-law, Joe Odom;

Debbie was a nurse in the Del Rio Community and surrounding areas (Eagle Pass, Carrizo Springs and Rock Springs) for over 37 years. Because of Debbie's passion for nursing, several family members also followed in her nursing footsteps. Debbie cared for hundreds of patients (hospice and home health) throughout her nursing career. She taught many nurses beside her specialties which were wound care along with dignity and respect, while on hospice. She was with patients until their life's end. Debbie retired from nursing right after the COVID-19 pandemic due to medical reasons. She will be greatly missed by her many family friends and colleagues.

Surviving family members include her wife of 16 years, Annie Joyce Odom-Fisher, of Del Rio; son, Kenneth Fisher and wife Mercy Fisher of Del Rio; grandchildren: Annabelle Fisher and Axton Fisher; siblings: James West Jr. and wife, Linda West of Del Rio, Michael West and wife Florda West of San Antonio, TX, and Wendy McFarlin and husband Wayne McFarlin of Georgia;

Her father James West, and his wife Marcia and their daughter Tanya Jackson. Debbie is also survived by numerous nephews, nieces, other relatives and family.
