“ Te amo y siempre te voy a llevar en mi Corazón y mi pensamiento mi Lalito me siento afortunada de ver sido yo quien te disfruto los últimos meses y días quien te alimentará y compartiera tiempo contigo somos una familia muy mitotera y fiestera así que yo te recordaré con tu bonita sonrisa porque tú sigues vivo en mi corazón descansa en Paz mi hermoso Ángel del cielo de la noche a la mañana tus alas se abrieron para estar junto a tu hijito y tú abuela Eloísa los dos te recibieron con los brazos abiertos.al igual que tu abuela Paula y todos nuestros demás familiares que se nos adelantaron duele mucho tu partida pero albergo la esperanza de que un día cuando Dios me llame a cuentas nos volveremos a ver hijo un fuerte abrazo con todo mi amor y cariño hasta el cielo para ti Lalito que Dios te tenga en su santo Reyno y brille para ti la luz perpetua 🙏

“ My brother from childhood. I hope to see you one day again but till then I promise to hold our memories close in heart. From the early mornings we'd call one another to see if we were ready to meet up to walk and catch the bus together whether it be me stop by your house or you come to mine but those mornings were always a must to the times you had my back any time a guy wanted to act tough on me you were always there! You didn't know this but I always felt safe when I was with you. You were my brother from a different wound. I could never forget you and the laughter you filled a lot of our lives with. The joy you brought everytime you entered a room your smile we'll remember forever. Love ya bro! Sincerely Licha

“ In memory of our dear friend who brought joy, shared laughter, and left an indelible mark in our hearts. Your spirit will always be with us, your memories we hold close to our hearts. We may have lost you in presence, but your love and wisdom continue. You were more than a friend, you were family. Little Eddie was loved by many and will be missed dearly. Rest in paradise my friend. Villarreal Family
