“ Hey Royce, you and Liz had a great love relationship. The Lord Jesus surely joined you two together as one. He had a plan and a purpose for you two and you lived to fulfill it. He left you here, Royce. March on in Jesus name, stay the course, be the light, this age time is short. Much to do for the Lord . . . praying for you and yours!!

“ When I think of Aunt Liz, I think of love, laughter and smiles. My fondest memories were of Uncle Royce and Aunt Liz always teasing each another. They loved one another, and others, unconditionally. Liz was so compassionate and drew everyone in with her heart of gold. She gave the best hugs - the kind that make you feel all is right in the world. She will truly be missed. All my love to you Uncle Royce.

“ For those that remember the great flood in Del Rio~~~I was the nurse at Lamar Elementary. Liz contacted me about helping our families that lost so much. She organized and we worked together collecting clothes and other items. She was amazing! Our husbands, Royce and Rick, built a small storage building to maintain all the donations. She had such a big heart ❤️

“ Liz always impressed me by juggling so many things at once. When we first met Royce had a lot of health problems. She took care of him while trying to take care of her grandchildren , doing all the driving , working and taking care of whatever needed to be done. She will truly be missed. May God give peace to Royce and all the rest of her family. Love to you all. Judy Mayes
