

Geraldine K. Protz

March 16, 1934 - March 26, 2021

Geraldine was the daughter of Raymond Kuhn and Flora Brooks Kuhn and the eldest of three children. Her younger brothers are Charles and Richard Kuhn. Her parents, brother Charles and son-in-law Mike Gordon preceded her in death. Gerrie was an active, independent and creative person who loved family and the Lord above all else. She is survived by her son, Bill Pinchak his wife Iris, daughter Kelly Gordon and brother Rich Kuhn. Gerrie loved her grandchildren Lauren Gordon, Clay Gordon, Wes Pfeiffer and Russ Pfeiffer. Gerrie is survived by her great grandchildren Strauss and Sterjess Pfeiffer.

Gerrie loved Del Rio and all the wonderful people she met through her various business endeavors, notably the Galleria del Sol. She loved art, great food, dancing, joking and spending time with her family.

Kelly and Bill were blessed with a champion in their court throughout her life. She loved to visit with her grandchildren and share in their joys. She and Lauren were particularly close with their own code word language of I U and Hoppin-Poppin. Her widest smiles and laughter of joy were with her family. Gerrie was cared for by Kelly during the last years of her life. Bill always told Kelly she was his rock star for selflessly dedicating herself to Mom's care.

A very special thank you to all Maverick Hospice health care providers that went above and beyond to provide care for Gerrie and give unwavering support for Kelly. These amazing people were there for them 24-7 as needed as Gerrie took her last journey in this life.

Visitation will from 8:00 AM-10:30 AM Monday, March 29th at Trinity Mortuary, followed by a graveside celebration of life at 11:00 at Sunset Oaks Memorial Cemetery.

“ I love this lady dearly she was always there for me ,it was a joy to work for her for so many years, we shared a lot of happy tears from laughter, tears from painful stories that we held within our hearts and shared with no one else, illness crept in like it often does and she went to bat for me even then ,I'll will always remember her with a loving heart.
R.I.P Beautiful lady.
