“ We are sadden to hear of the loss of Goyo. I remember a long time ago playing in the street on Ave T where we lived, Goyo was a very hard working man, after he retired he would work on odd jobs and did not shy away from work. He served his country in the United States Army. He was a Vietnam Veteran. I asked him what was his worst experience during the Vietnam war. He answered me with a tear in his eye, leaving my family in Hawaii after R and R and going back to Vietnam. May the Lord Bless all of you and help with the healing. I will you and the great smile you had.
