“ Sad to hear the news of Uncle Chuy, our thoughts & prayers are with all his family & friends. Always enjoyed going to Del Rio for our summers, to visit with all my dads extended family members. I remember my uncle always riding off on his bicycle to go to work, & coming home, only to turn around & go out in my grandparents yard to help with the up-keep of the chickens, turkeys, goats etc that they raised as well as watering the plants & trees around the yard, always doing something to help around the house. May my uncle now be in the presence of our Lord Jesus, & those that precede him in his passing. May we all find comfort in our memories of Chuy. God bless him & all his family & friends, rest in peace Uncle Chuy , you will be missed but forever in our hearts.
