“ Comadre Adelina, our heart breaks from the hearing the news of Compadre Chel. He was such a wonderful man with a heart of gold. He always had jokes and made us laugh and always made us welcomed in his home. Our children always ask for him and we reminsce about the good times they had with your children and remember Chel always barbequing. He will always be in our hearts! We love ya! Our heartfelt condolences, prayers and thoughts go out to you and all the family. We are here for you. May he RIP.
