

Juana Hernandez

February 10, 2023

Juana T. Hernandez peacefully entered into eternal repose on February 10, 2023 at her home in Del Rio, TX. Her friends referred to her as “Juanita,” as she preferred to be called. But for those of us whose love and comfort was a staple on a daily basis, she was dearly known as Amá, Mami, Madresita, Grandma, Abuelita, and Güela.

Juanita was born on June 2, 1924 in San Carlos, Coahuila. She met the love of her life in Acuna, and together moved to Del Rio, TX where they created the best life for their family of six. Juanita blessed us with ninety-eight wonderful years on Earth, continuously showing her love for her family and above all, our Lord.

Juanita always prided herself in her work ethic, sharing memories of working (at a very young age) to contribute to the family income. Juanita grew up in a time where it was not customary for women to work the type of job she was in, much less the management role she would eventually occupy. She broke barriers to say the least, and in doing so, taught her children and future grandchildren that there is no limit to what one can accomplish.

Coupled with a strong work ethic, she instilled in her family that education was of great importance. She marveled, supported, and prayed for every success that her loved ones experienced. There is no promotion, job interview, school exam, or travel destination that her prayers did not contribute to.

Juanita enjoyed traveling, shopping, socializing, dancing, and serving her church community as a faithful member of the Sagrado Corazon de Maria. She has instilled in her loved ones, the passion for living life to the fullest. While she always wished she had better opportunities growing up, she has left behind a legacy of children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren who will honor her hopes and dreams.

Juanita is preceded in death by her beloved son Luis Lauro Hernandez (wife Beverly), daughter-in-law Berta Hernandez, brothers Antonio Alvarado and Luis Alvarado, her mother, María Alvarado, and her husband, Venancio Hernández.

She is survived by her children, Diva Mayra Vazquez (husband Francisco) Palacios, TX, Jose Venancio Hernandez (wife Maria Isabel) Palacios, TX, Maite Rivera, Mario Hernandez, and Naela Dominguez (husband Rogelio Jr) Del Rio, TX, sister Imelda Fernandez, as well as 19 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren who love her dearly and will miss her immensely.
