“ My family and I share our sincere and deepest condolences to the Arrañaga family. Mr Arrañaga was great customer, businessman and friend of our family. His calligraphy and art adored my Dad's stores weekly, monthly and seasonally. He taught me how to shadow letters and which direction strokes should flow, to create a better form. His love of boxing was on par with my dad's and of course I shared many years of education and friendship with Adrian, Jerry and Claudia.

I am deeply saddened, yet rejoice in the wonderful memories he created for me of my youth, and ask God to provide his family with serenity, strength and wonderful memories of their time with him.

From Alfredo and Lucitelma Martinez, and from my sister Lucy and I, please accept our humble prayers for his eternal peace by our Lord's side.
