

Melissa Ann Goodwin

November 26, 1965 - March 11, 2024

Melissa Ann Goodwin, affectionately known to most as Missy, tragically passed on March 11, 2024, in Del Rio, Texas. Born on November 26, 1965 in Orlando, Florida to Bobbie Jean and Roy Goodwin, Missy was the second of four children.

Missy and her family moved to Texas - where she'd call home for the rest of her life. She set her roots first in Del Rio before marrying and moving to Houston, where she would have and raise three children. Before long, Missy returned to Del Rio to be with family, rekindle old friendships, and forge new ones. Her homecoming was, as she described it, natural and easy.

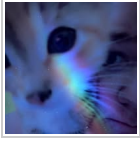

Missy was many things: a devoted daughter, a loving sister, a beloved mother, a supportive aunt, and a loyal friend. She was loud, kind, and generous to a fault. She was also a fierce advocate for all who needed one, a proud member of the LGBTQIA+ community, and unapologetically herself in all situations. She knew no limits against which she wouldn't struggle and persevere. She never met a challenge she was unwilling to face. Her indomitable heart inspires all who knew her and her courage and compassion will be remembered.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. She is survived by her three siblings, Robbie, Sherrie, and Carrie; her three children, Amanda,

Emily, and Austin; son-in-law Nick, and her two grandchildren, Addison and Emery.

Though her passing comes unexpectedly and with great sadness, we celebrate the remarkable life she led and the profound impact she had on those fortunate enough to have known her.

“ I hired Melissa at SimplexGrinnell in Houston, I think now maybe around 18 years ago. Since that very day we were friends and close work buddy’s. We had so many laughs, we had group card readings during lunch and anything else we could think of to entertain ourselves (can’t forget the Wilson mystery) We had fun. It hurts my heart to hear that’s she’s passed, she will be missed. My sincere condolences. Debbie Arlen

“ I grew up in Del Rio, and my first contact with the Goodwins was with Carrie and Sherrie, as we attended Garfield elementary together. When I met Missy in High School, I learned what a wonderfully humorous and joyful person their older sis Missy was! As a drama geek, I got to share many happy experiences with her, and to this day maintain contact with her through FB. Fiercely protective of her loved ones, and never afraid to stand up for her values and beliefs- I was constantly delighted, and warmed by her posts and our conversations. I will miss her terribly.

My heartfelt condolences to her brother and sisters, her children and family and friends, May our Lord receive her and Bless her with Eternal Peace, and may he grant you strength, serenity and joyful memories of your days with Melissa. 🙏🙏🙏 yours JJ
