“ Sending our most sincere condolences and prayers for peace and comfort to the Araujo family. I had the pleasure of working with Phillip for many years. He became one of my good friends. One thing I know about Phillip is the love and pride he had for his family. All of you were his EVERYTHING. To the world, he was a railroader, but to y'all we know he was much more than that. You are not alone in your grief. Phillip will never be forgotten. And not because of this tragedy, but because he was a GOOD MAN. I'm blessed to have known him. Every time I make that famous salsa recipe, I'll think of you! Gone, but never forgotten. Rest in peace my brother, we'll take it from here. Railroading and high ball roll bys won't be the same without you.
