

Rafael Liceaga

October 26, 1945 - October 7, 2025

Rafael A. Liceaga, age 79, went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, October 7, 2025 while surrounded by his family here in Del Rio. He was born on October 26, 1945 in Sabinas, Coahuila, Mexico.

At a young age, Rafael inherited his passion for music from his father. He pursued his musical and artistic interests in Mexico City, where he studied music at Bellas Artes. Throughout his life, Rafael remained a dedicated musician, playing the piano, guitar, and bass. He generously shared his musical knowledge by teaching numerous adults and children, including his own grandchildren. Rafael also performed for various audiences in Mexico.

Beyond his musical endeavors, Rafael was an active member of Saint Joseph Catholic Church. He was part of the church choir and actively participated in the parish community such as ACTS. Additionally, he enjoyed road trips, traveling, and attending baseball games.

The family expresses their deepest gratitude to Val Verde Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for the exceptional care they provided to Rafael during his time there.

Preceding him in death was parents, Maria and Rafael Liceaga; sister Maria Del Carmen Liceaga, brothers, Julio Cesar Liceaga and Gilberto Liceaga.
