“ To me,Raul Padilla was like a brother and best friend ever. We were inseperable throughout our middle and senior school years. Some times after school, he would invite me to his house. On our way to his house, we traversed through the Kress department store, exiting via the back doorway where there was a narrow creek, with flowing water, behind the Kress store and Raul's house. Whenever we crossed the bridge, we would stop in the middle of the creek and stare down at the minnows swimming below. Raul once told me he had seen an aligator lurking in the creek. I looked hard but never saw any signs of an aligator. However, I gave my dear friend the benefit of doubt. Raul was a strong softball pitcher. I vividly recall playing softball during our lunch break, practically everyday. He was an aggressive running back while playing football with the Del Rio Wildcats. He wore jersey #21, and I wore #83. Unfortunately, our lives took us in different directioins. He moved to California and I joined the USAF. It was, indeed, my honor and privilege to have met and befriend Raul and his siblings. My condolences go out to his wife, Pura, and his family. May his soul and spirit rest in eternal peace.

“ I was honor to be invited into Mr.and Mrs. Padilla's home and treated like family in Tracy, CA. They were like my 2nd parents. Little did he know that he took the roll as my dad when I no longer had a dad, he would talk to me and give me advise and I treasured his words of wisdom. Thank you for being there when I needed you.
