

Rayne Elaine Rice

February 7, 1995 - December 21, 2022

Beautiful Rayne transitioned into a bright light in heaven and continues to shine her magnificent bright light on everyone she loves. She was Wife to Erasmo "Mo" Silva, who loved her to the moon and back, and worked with him daily on their business (Nakoma's Woodworking) in Del Rio, Texas. She was a proud Mom to her toddler daughter, Nakoma Silva, and baby boy, Malachite Silva. Daughter to Pauline and Marco Lazo, who loved her dearly and raised her in El Paso, Texas. Both gave Rayne the talents of art and music. Sister to Damien Lazo, who loved her very much, and who she composed and collaborated with, not only in life but through many musical compositions. Rayne was a friend of many countless wonderful people who adored her zest for life.

Though Rayne was tragically taken from us, she would be remembered for her infinite talents. Her art of woodwork, from the smallest projects of making interesting earrings from wood to huge wooden cabinets for homes. She will not be known for being an innocent victim of a crime, but rather her love to write music, having a beautiful voice, playing her guitar, working hard, and being ambitious. Everyone will remember her fantastic smile and the fact that she wanted to build a garden. She will be remembered as funny, witty, and having a personality that was bigger than life. We will remember that she opted to be an organ donor and saved four peoples lives. Rest in peace, Rayne, we see your light shining.

“ I saw you grow from that little big eyed girl with the big smile. You were by Brenda's side for so many years. Countless sleep overs in each other's home and so many memories made. My prayers are with your husband and those beautiful children. Rest in peace Rayne.
