“ Rest In Peace my sweet cousin that I so love. You were a kind and caring person to everyone. Rosy I admired your accomplishments in life. You received your college degree and becoming a teacher for over 30 years. You impacted so many children during your career. Everyone that met you loved you because you always were nice, friendly and fun to be with. You were a sincere person that was easily noticed by many. God bless you and you will never be forgotten. I will miss you more than you will ever know. Amen!
