“ Momma Sally...I have no idea how many other people called her that...but I bet it's too many to count! She was my second mom growing up...technically Deanna & Sammy were my babysitters and even though that lasted a while, I was really just another one of her girls. I have so many memories I can't begin to pick a favorite. I love this woman! Fly high Momma Sally! We will all miss you!! 💕💕

“ Will miss Sally as a friend and fellow board game player. We spent many evening playing FastTrack or as some called it Pegs & Jokers, killing the other team or person before they could win..Sally love to have people come and share their deck with her and Elmer. At times could have 20 plus setting around eating and having beers and mixed drinks. Those times are happy memories..Love you Sally, Rest In Peace! 💕🐸🌸🍺🎰💕

“ Sally was a blue ribbon chili cooker and a great keeper of secrets. She had sparkles in her eyes and a million dollar smile. I called her “friend” and I’ll miss her! Y’all were lucky to call her mom...
