“ My fondest memory that I have of my lovely Mother In-Law Sara is, right after her lovely daughter Irma and I got married, Sara and I was talking on the front porch of Isela’s house. This was the first time she and I was alone together and talking. Since I only speak and understand Spanish a little bit, we talked for over an hour. She was always smiling and laughing during our talk and would help me say it in Spanish if I said it wrong. It felt like two friends just sitting and talking. She will be missed but not forgotten. May God bless you Sara. You’re Son In-law Tony.
